THE FOLLOWING ARTISTS COMPLETE THE STEERS & COMAN 1927-28 SERIES:

GEORGES ENESCO—January 23—The famous Roumanian composer and violin virtuoso. A "Master" Musician, one of the great minds of present-day music.

PRO ARTE STRING QUARTET—February 20—"A peerless string quartet. I have never heard anything so complete, so translucent."—Washington Times.

THE ENGLISH SINGERS of London—March 2—"It is hardly possible to describe the art of these amazing visitors—their perfect ensemble, beauty and variety of nuances, incredible true intonation, pathos and humor."—New York World.

SIGRID ONEGIN—March 19—The great Swedish contralto. "Supreme" and "Paramount" but mildly describe her position. She is a "Star of Stars," the songbird incomparable. "It is the voice of the angels. It has no earthly equal."

HAROLD BAUER—March 26—"Colossus of the pianoforte." One of the half dozen players who in the present age have combined to make pianism a thing of enjoyment. A poet and a scholar, an authority and a student.

JASCHA HEIFETZ USES THE STEINWAY.

"It is my opinion that the Steinway is a piece of superb craftsmanship that demonstrates the finest musical possibilities. I use it exclusively.

Sincerely yours, JASCHA HEIFETZ"

For all true lovers of music

IT IS difficult to imagine the great pianists, singers, violinists and conductors in complete accord about any one subject. They come from every corner of the earth. They have widely varying tastes, violently opposed ideas, sharply contrasted convictions. It seems impossible that they should all agree on any one question.

Yet all the foremost musicians are united in their appreciation and regard for the Steinway piano.

The simple truth is this—that the Steinway is practically the inevitable choice of the true lover of music.

Uprights $950 and up; Grands from $1475. Convenient terms. Used pianos accepted in partial exchange.

And here is an interesting fact to remember: Sherman, Clay & Co. are always ready to buy for cash a Steinway Grand piano that has been properly cared for. The demand for used Steinway Grands is permanent and unfailing.
