RULES OF THE HOUSE

No seats will be reserved before the time announced for the opening of the box office.

No telephone orders will be taken for seats; please do not ask it--there are no exceptions made. Ushers are instructed not to seat anyone arriving after curtain has been raised, until the intermission following.

Not more than six seats can be bought at one time by any one person--this prevents the buying of more than three aisle seats by any one individual.

The date of box office opening, price of seats and time of curtain rise will be announced in both daily papers. CURTAIN WILL RISE AT 8:30 P. M.

Physicians and other patrons anticipating emergency calls are invited to leave their names and numbers of their seats at the box office.

It is desired patrons will please report to the management, in person or by letter, instance of inattention or misdemeanor on the part of any attache of this theatre.

Babies in arms not admitted.

Lost articles should be reported at once to the box office.

Seats Reserved will not be held later than 6.00 o'clock of the evening of the performance.
