

WORLD-CLASS BEER SUSTAINABLY

Founded in 2007, Hopworks Urban Brewery is committed to brewing world-class beer as sustainably as possible using organic malts and hops sourced primarily from the Northwest. The company's 20-barrel brewery produces 12,500 barrels of beer a year for HUB's two brewpubs and for distribution in Oregon, Washington, Idaho and British Columbia. Hopworks incorporates a range of sustainable practices in its operation and makes every effort to protect "our" future with a thoughtful alternative. HUB is 100% renewably powered, water neutral and "cradle to gate" carbon neutral.

HOPWORKS URBAN BREWERY

Hopworks Urban Brewery offers world-class organic beer and fresh food in a relaxed and communal atmosphere. Over the course of 18 months we transformed an old tractor showroom into a cozy, industrial brewpub using green building principles. From composting to rain barrels, and from pervious pavers to hand dryers, we have made every effort to protect "our" future with a thoughtful alternative

We have four distinct dining areas including a family-friendly dining rooms with play areas, a vibrant bicycle bar and two outdoor patios.
