GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

Governing the Issuance and Use of Passes at the

Lewis and Clark Centennial Exposition

Passes will be issued as per classification hereinafter specified, and these general rules will apply in every instance where a pass has been issued.

Passes will not be replaced during the period for which same have been issued. When passes are lost, prompt notice must be given to the Department of Admissions, in order that notice of same may be posted and the pass taken up at the gate, when presented.

When an employee is discharged or resigns, his pass must be taken up by his employer and a pass will not be issued to his successor, until the original pass is returned to the Department of Admissions.

The Lewis and Clark Centennial and American Pacific Exposition and Oriental Fair reserves the right to revoke or cancel any pass at any time.

If a pass be revoked or cancelled, a new pass will not be issued except upon the express approval of the interest which caused such revocation.

Passes are void and will be forfeited if showing any evidence of alteration or erasure.

All passes are non-transferable, and will be forfeited if presented by any other than the person named thereon.

Any person presenting a pass may be required, by the gate-keeper, to prove his identity.

In addition to these general rules, all passes are issued subject to the conditions printed thereon.

Every person for whom a pass has been issued must be actually, necessarily and continuously employed and in attendance upon the interest making requisition for the same.

It is expressly understood and agreed by and between the Lewis and Clark Centennial and American Pacific Exposition and Oriental Fair, party of the first part, and the interest making requisition for any pass hereinbefore or hereinafter mentioned, party of the second part, that any violation of these general rules shall become a charge against said party of the second part to the amount of fifty (50) cents for each violation, and each day in connection with said violation shall be deemed a separate and distinct offense.

A charge of $2.00 will be made for each photo pass, which amount must accompany the requisition.

The Exposition management reserves the right to amend, change or add to these rules whenever it may be deemed necessary for the interest of the Exposition or the general good.

Passes will be Issued Subject to General Rules and Regulations Governing the Issuance and Use of Same, as follows :

To Directors of Divisions upon receipt of written application approved by the President.

To Commissioners and their assistants upon receipt of written application approved by the President.

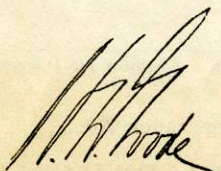

To the Press upon receipt of written application signed by the Director of Exploitation and approved by the President.

To Exposition employees upon receipt of written application signed by the chief or head of department under whom they are working, approved by the director or officer in charge of said department.

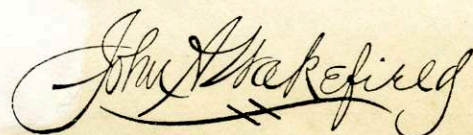

To Exhibitors, Concessionaires and their employees upon receipt of written application, approved by the director of the division under which they are operating and by the President.

NOTE—This form, D. A. 29, must be used in applying for all season, term and photo passes.

Approved March 24, 1905.

President and Director General.

Director Concessions and Admissions.
