"WHERE ROLLS THE OREGON"

LEWIS AND CLARK CENTENNIAL

AND

AMERICAN PACIFIC EXPOSITION AND ORIENTAL FAIR 1905

Office, 203 Vine Street PORTLAND, OREGON, U. S. A.

FOLIO	AMOUNT DUE FIRST ASSESSMENT, $
NAME	AMOUNT DUE SECOND ASSESSMENT.
	TOTAL, - - - -

I beg to inform you that you are indebted to this Company the amounts shown above on account assessments on capital stock held by you.

Prompt payment of these amounts is respectfully requested. The Exposition of 1905 is assured, the referendum not having been invoked. We are about to begin building operations on the Fair Grounds and must have the money without delay.

Please have the kindness to give this matter your immediate attention. A bill showing the amount due from you was mailed to you February 24, 1903. Bring it to the office when you pay or inclose it with your remittance.

Yours very truly,

HENRY E REED,

Secretary.
