

"Where Rolls the Oregon"

LEWIS AND CLARK CENTENNIAL
AND
AMERICAN PACIFIC EXPOSITION AND ORIENTAL FAIR

PORTLAND, OREGON, U. S. A., November 1, 1903.

D E L I N Q U E N T N O T I C E

TO THE STOCKHOLDER:

Please take notice that the third assessment on the capital stock of this Company held by you was due and payable, October 1, 1903. It is the desire of the Directors to close up the stock books so far as this assessment is concerned at as early a date as practicable. and they will thank you if you will give this matter your prompt attention. In paying please bring the printed statement of your account which was mailed to you at the time the assessment was levied. Make checks, money orders, etc., payable to the First National Bank, Treasurer. The account is payable at the office of the Company, No. 203 Vine Street, opposite Skidmore Fountain.

Building work is about to begin on the grounds, therefore, the Directors hope that all accounts due the corporation will be promptly settled.

You will please take notice that the offer of Souvenir Free Admission Tickets to all stockholders who pay in full will expire November 15th, 1903. If you wish to take advantage of the Exposition Company's offer you will have to pay in full before that date.

Yours very truly,

HENRY E. REED,

Secretary.