

H. W. GOODE, PRESIDENT
HENRY E. REED, SECRETARY

Lewis and Clark Centennial Exposition

1905

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

Portland, Oregon, May 10, 1905.

TO THE STOCKHOLDER:

Please call at the Exposition Company's office, Room 26, Administration Building, World's Fair Grounds, for the five souvenir single admission tickets, to which stockholders who paid in full prior to June 1, 1904, are entitled. Bring the attached receipt, fully signed for identification. If you desire me to mail the tickets to you, please fill out the receipt, mail same to me and I will then forward the tickets to the address you give.

Yours very truly,

HENRY E. REED,

Secretary.

NOTE—THIS RECEIPT MUST BE PRESENTED IN PERSON, OR MAILED TO THE SECRETARY.

To HENRY E. REED, Secretary, Lewis and Clark Exposition:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of the five souvenir single admission tickets to which I am entitled by reason of having paid in full my subscription to the capital stock prior to June 1, 1904.
