ROSE FESTIVAL PROGRAM

By Georglanna Baker

In this issue we give descriptions of various activities throughout Rose Festival Week. The remaining activities will be too late for this edition so can be found in the next.

The following is the description of the activities of Tuesday, June 10:

At 1:00 p.m., the south Park blocks offered the services of their "Tourist Information Center." This consisted of several booths set up in the southern-most block and offering pamphlets, programs, and descriptive folders from the city of which they could tell most about. One booth, the Corvallis center, showed colored slides of the important building and sights of that city.

At 5:00 p.m., the national recognized high school band from Sioux Falls, South Dakota, entertained with a concert.

The Civic Stadium was the scene of the Queen's Coronation. The prelude was by the Washington High Band. Then the Royal Rosarians entered, followed by the eight lovely Princesses and their escorts. The Crown and Scepter Bearers came next and then Her Majesty, Queen Georgene I, entered.

The eight princesses were dressed in pink silk off-shoulder formals with a hint of a hoop skirt. The hipline of the dresses were gathered, as were the sleeves and neckline. The beautiful, dark-haired queen wore the traditional white of her predecessors, and had white platform shoes on. Two pretty eight-year-old train bearers carried the long skirt and followed her to her throne. The queen did not wear her gold and white cloak on entering the stadium, but it was presented to her upon her throne.

Within five minutes after she was seated upon her throne, Irving Erickson, Prime Minister of the Royal Rosarians, placed upon her head the beautiful, sparkling crown worn by every queen since 1922. Then he presented her with the silver scepter which was to be her private possession throughout her life.

GARDENS

Gardens are just as important today as they were during the war. The cost of living should convince you of that fact without considering the value a garden has in enabling you to have home canned foods.

You may say, "It is too late for a garden." It isn't. Just listen to these late garden suggestions: beans, Swiss chard, Brussel sprouts, corn, lettuce, green peas, late potatoes, radishes, rutabagas, spinach. All of these can be planted as late as July and August. According to Ray W. Gill of Gill Brother's Seed Co., in his "Winter Garden Radio Talk,"

"In the Pacific Coast sections, west of the Cascade Mountains, we have a wonderful opportunity to plant a winter garden, which will provide a great many varieties of vegetables throughout the late fall and winter. We should also keep in mind the great advantages of planting such items as beans, carrots, beets, turnips, spinach, mustard greens and fall radishes late in the summer for fall and winter use."

As you can see, your garden can furnish canning material as well as fresh vegetables for winter use.

There are a few garden plots available here in Vanport as well as the whole series of Garden Radio Talks by Ray W. Gill of the Gill Brother's Seed Co. See Ruth Watson at the Information desk in the Administration Building. R.W.

VANPORTER VISITS NORTH DAKOTA

Mrs. Elizabeth Reich, 2708 Broadacres, Apartment 3652, left for Hazelton, North Dakota this week for a two week visit with friends and relatives there.

Mrs. Reich expects to return June 23.

The VOICE of Vanport
Community Bldg. #1
Vanport, Oregon

Dear Staff:

Since the first VOICE appeared in Vanport February 14 (remember!), many of you have given a lot of time and effort to it. In fact, six of you have worked on every one of the ten issues, and I want to express my own personal sincere appreciation for your help.
Thanks a lot--Audrey Publicover, Opal
Bebb, Jimmy Beck, Benjamin Noble, Roy
Banks, and Nettie Berglund.

Your new editor, Johnny Rawlings, will need your cooperation as much as I have, especially since the VOICE is now multilithed.

It's been lots of fun working with you, and I hope to see all of you just as often--in the VOICE office.

Thanks again for your loyalty, hard work, and interest in the VOICE. You have made it possible, and your continued efforts will make it even better.

Sincerely,

"H. D."
Helen Deane Morris

Dear Editor:

An article appeared in The Voice of Vanport recently telling of the destruction of property by juvenile delinquents.
But there is something far worse which has not been mentioned. And I wish hereby to make public protest against the wanton killing of pets and wild birds by boys who with guns of all sizes roam over the project shooting at everything that moves.

Attn: Mr. Johnny Rawlings, Editor

Dear Mr. Rawlings:

May I take this opportunity to thank you and your co-workers for the splendid job you are doing in publishing and distributing the Voice of Vanport.

On many occasions, I have been told that a publication of this type could not exist at Vanport, but due to the fine work you and your staff have done, you not only have proven that there could be a publication of this type, but also that it could be done in a professional manner.

I also congratulate you and your staff on the advancement of this publication from a mimeograph paper to the new multilith edition and wish you even greater success in the future.

Sincerely,

HOUSING AUTHORITY OF PORTLAND

To the Staff:

I wish to commend the staff of "The Voice of Vanport" on the outstanding job they have done. The steady improvement in the paper reflects their untiring efforts and we feel they are acquiring valuable experience in the field of journalism through this work on the project newspaper.

Sincerely,

My own personal loss is great. An unusually large and beautiful Persian cat on which I had spent much care, money and affection was shot and left to die. In making inquiries about my pet, I learned of several others that had been killed. Some may have been strays, but no one could possibly have mistaken my cat for a stray.
From my windows, I have seen little birds shot and drop down from trees dead or maimed.

I deplore as much as anyone the willful destruction of property, but it can be replaced. A life once taken can never be restored.

I hope this letter will be read by the youth of Vanport and that they will stop these wanton killings which bring deep sorrow to those whose pets are so destroyed.

Teen Town Talk

AN HOUR AND A HALF WITH THE QUEEN AND HER COURT

By Arthur Merrill

The time--5:15 p.m. The place--a suite at the Multnomah Hotel. The girls--Queen Georgene I and her royal court.

Queen Georgene I is engaged to a lucky fellow whose name is Ray Patterson. She intends to go to the University of Oregon. Her favorite sports are swimming and horseback riding. She prefers to read fiction, novels being her favorite.

Although born in Hollywood, California, she lives with her family at 2226 N. Hoyt in Portland.

When asked how she felt when she learned she would be queen of the 1947 Rose Festival, she replied: "I didn't feel anything. I was just numb."

The Queen and her princesses were all charming to talk with. The Queen had poise, charm, and is the kind of a girl any American boy would love to come home to. Long live the Queen!

VANPORT BIRTHS AT PERMANENTE

A son, John Vernon, was born to Mr. and Mrs. John McEwen on June 3 of 2708 Broadacre, Apt. 3656.

A daughter, Barbara Jean, was born to Dr. and Mrs. Edgar Allen, Jr., on June 7. Dr. Allen has been in the surgery department of Permanente Hospital for the past two years, and Mrs. Allen is a graduate nurse who reported at times to the out-patient department of Permanente.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Norman of Vancouver, Washington, are parents of a daughter, Carolyn Diane, born June 6. Mrs. Norman was also an out-patient nurse at the hospital. Could it be catching?

A daughter, Sandra Lee, was born on June 5 to Mr. and Mrs. Tom Warren of 10508 Island, Apt. 6301.

A son, Alvin Oscar, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Alvin R. Anderson of 11108 Lake, Apt. 3202.

CONVALESCING

Dooley Mallory of 3615B Cottonwood is doing nicely after a crushing injury to his right hand, necessitating amputation of two fingers.

Harry Davis, who lives at 2808 Broadacres, is convalescing from a heart attack.

Myra McDonald, 11 months, of 10518 Island, Apt. 6242 is doing very well after suffering a fractured left leg. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Colin McDonald.

AMBER'S IDEAS

What's this we hear about Donna Bantum and Pepper Jensen breaking up? Too bad, but don't forget, Lila Bacon's around, Pepper.

Shirley Dailey and Jack Muller seemed to be having quite a nice time at the dance Saturday. She and Gaston broke up the next day.

Don't tell me Wanda Long and Blair Gustafson are finally making up. Oh, well, miracles still happen.

Say, Nettie, you don't have to take advantage of Roland's absence. I'm sure Jollie could have found his way alone.

Ginger Jones and Duane Siegrist make up one of the cutest couples at the Rec lately.

What's this I hear about Jack Woods and Birdie Horton breaking up and making up?

Say, Jimmy, did you and Marion get to the cafe before it closed Saturday after the dance?

Why is it Joan Veach always comes to dances by herself? Don't tell me Roland doesn't dance.

Shame on you, Helen. Ralph buys you a corsage and then Marion walks you home.

GOING STEADY

It feels so good, so swell, so great,
To never worry about a date,
He's always there, he's always ready,
You're all set - you're going steady!

You know each day the 'phone will ring,
You understand what the singer's sing,
He tells you other girls all seem gruesome,
You're his O.A.O. - his half of the twosome!

He carries your books, he buys you cokes,
He walks you home and meets your folks,
He comes around regardless of weather,
And wherever you go - you're there together!

But then in time other grass looks greener,
This girl is outer; that guy is keener.
A look, a frown, a word against men.
A quarrel, a fight, - and you're "free" again.
The Microphone.

YOU CAN BREATHE A SIGH OF RELIEF NOW

By Harlan Snyder

After 4½ years of living in Vanport, Harlan Snyder is leaving. Goodbye, ya bum! He was one of the first forty tenants to come to Vanport.

Now that Vanport has become civilized, and is getting more so, he is going to pioneer westward to a bleak desolate place known as Seaside, Oregon.

I reiterate: Goodbye and good riddance, Harlan.

(Editor's note: The above opinions are those of Harlan Snyder.)

Customer at Bank: "I would like to buy some travelers' cheques, please."
Teller: "Certainly, ma'am. What denomination?"
Customer: "Protestant, of course."

MOVIE REVIEWS

By Baker & Merrill

"Framed", which is now showing at the Orpheum, is just what the name implies. You'd think you would have to be framed into seeing it a second time.

Most of my sidekicks have seen it and tell me to tell you that you're wasting your money. Do what you want about it, but don't forget you were warned.

Flash! Horse lovers will get a kick out of "Home Stretch," the Music Box current feature. Hold on, girls. Yep, Cornel Wilde's in it, too. And for the boys, there's Maureen O'Hara. This is also ideal for the family.

Alcoholism is not always confined to men alone as "Smash Up" plainly shows. Susan Hayward is the alcoholic in this tense drama. Lee Bowman is a radio personality who fails to give her understanding and companionship, which leads her to seek solace in drink.

The picture has much of the impact of "Lost Weekend," though it has far many more light moments, particularly in the beginning sequences in which Miss Hayward and Bowman are shown as a happily married pair, glorying in his success.

Miss Hayward and Bowman are heard singing throughout the picture and both possess pleasing voices (if they did the singing) while their songs are of unusually high caliber.

Eddie Albert, Marsha Hunt, and Carl Esmond give fine supporting characterizations.

"Song of Scherzade" is noted for its Rimsky-Korsakoff music and presents Jean Pierre Aumont in the role of the Russian composer.

Yvonne de Carlo is the Spanish dancer in the life of the famed composer, and is in several dance scenes.

Brian Donlevy is the captain of the ship on which the young composer is a midshipman with Philip Reed as a young Russian of similar rank. Eve Arden is Miss de Carlo's selfish, wise-cracking mother.

The story deals with a week of romantic adventuring in a North African seaport which the ship visits.

PERMANENTE PLAN TO ACCEPT INDIVIDUAL APPLICANTS

Mr. Rex Hamby, Business Manager of Permanente Hospital at Vanport City, informs us that the Permanente Health Plan formerly open only to employee-groups is going to be opened up to individual applicants. Mr. Hamby states that a number of individuals interested in the plan have had to be turned down in the past and that these people and others may be very happy to receive this news. Inquiries and applications can be made at the business office at the hospital in Vanport.

Mr. Hamby also wished to correct a rather common error. Individuals living in the area who are not on our health plan are eligible and invited to avail themselves of the services of the doctors and hospital. In other words, they are seen as private patients.

SUNDAY SIGHTSEEING

By Faye Olson

One of the oldest beaches in Oregon is Seaside Beach. The Lewis & Clark Expedition ended their journey where the turnaround is located now. The town has a population of 3,000 with many thousands more in the summertime, for it is an ideal vacation spot.

There is over two miles of beautiful sandy beach, part of which is overlooked by the Prom. For the athletically inclined, there is bicycling, horseback-riding, motor scooting, tennis, gold and swimming. The large golf course is ideal for those who like to brag about their straight shots because it, too, overlooks the ocean.

For the more hardy there is surf bathing under trained lifeguards and for those persons who like warmer water, there is the newly decorated natatorium. If you like to look at marine life, there is a large aquarium on the Prom. The skating rink is open in the summer and there is a dance hall open every weekend.

Along Broadway are many little shops selling knickknacks, souvenirs, candy, popcorn; and there are eating places of every kind serving hamburgers to fish dinners. Some of the favorites are the Seaside Hotel for its cuisine, The Little Gem for its seafood dinners, and the Chicken Coop for, guess what!

There are several nearby streams for fishing and clam digging.

At the end of this month--June 27 to 29--they are celebrating the Lewis & Clark Exposition. So if you can grow a beard or dress in crinoline, go down to Seaside and have a rootin'-rootin' old-fashioned time. Seaside is easily reached by both train and bus.

BAND LEADER GETS ORCHID

Mrs. Ada Wood, director of the Junior High School Band, received a lovely purple orchid from her class in celebration of her birthday, which was Monday, June 9.

Jimmy Beck, Diane Ports, and Marion Albright presented the flower.

ARMY WILL TAKE DISABLED VETERANS

Sgt. Langworthy, the local Army Qualification Interviewer, stated that the War Department is anxious to procure the services of partially disabled combat wounded army veterans of World War II.

Army veterans who were wounded as a direct result of enemy action (normally a wound for which a purple heart would be awarded) may enlist with the grades they held at discharge providing they do so on or before June 30, 1947. Men who apply must meet all other requirements for enlisting except the handicap due to the wound. In other words, a man may have one leg gone and qualify.

This policy was put into effect in order to give those who fall in this category an opportunity to complete their career in the Army and receive retirement benefits under present liberal retirement laws, for members of the armed forces.

MEETING NOTESAmerican Veterans' Committee

The Vanport Chapter of the American Veterans' Committee held its monthly business meeting on June 9 at Rec. Center #1. The main point of discussion focused on the coming AVC National Convention at Milwaukee, Wisc., on June 19-22, to which Mr. Belton Hamilton and Mr. Arthur R. Thom had been elected as delegates. The June 16 school board elections, current anti-labor legislation, and recreation plans for the summer also were items on the energetic agenda.

AVC is supporting "The Jubilee" and voted a contribution to help defray the expenses of this worthy project. The Packard Clipper which AVC is giving away to some lucky ticket holder was on display at "The Jubilee."

The next meeting, July 7, will feature election of officers. All of AVC's meetings are open with veterans and other friends of AVC especially invited to attend.

Vanport Sportsmen Rod & Gun Club

Well, folks, the club has not been doing much that can be called news. The boys have all been quite busy, so we have noted in the undiscovered facts to present.

The last meeting was held this past Thursday the 5th. The boys relaxed a little and in the process, we settled down and reviewed what has been accomplished in the past year.

If you fellow sports are interested in movies, keep your eyes and ears open. We are planning on running a show along about the 25th or 26th with the idea of giving the natives of the village a brief review on where to go and what to see.

How many of you fellows that are gun cranks want a place to shoot? We have been hearing a lot of talk about, "Why don't you have some shooting matches?" OK, fellows come on around and let us know what you are expecting. You know, if you want to have your cake to eat, you first have to get the ingredients. So if you are as interested as you sound, come on around with them said ingredients and we will try and make said cake.

Our next meeting will be this coming June the 26th, so we will be looking for you.

A man chases a woman until she catches him.

MEETING NOTESVanport Tenants' League

Vanport Tenants' League met at Community Building #1 on Friday, June 6. Since there were too few in attendance, because of the bad weather, no official business was transacted.

The executive board meeting was held in the home of Vice-President E. H. Curry, 2807 Cottonwood on Tuesday, June 17.

Junior Rod & Gun Club

Well, folks, by the time you have read this, our meeting of June 9 will have come and gone. We have some big plans coming up. We are getting the ground-work laid for a couple of projects we have in mind.

We are going to start working on fishing poles, flies, and bows and arrows in the near future, so if any of you are interested, be sure to come around at the next meeting.

CHATTERBOX

By Faye Olson

If you are pondering the question of what to do with your children this summer, remember the summer playground facilities available. That is one way to keep them occupied with cultural and healthful fun. We need more volunteer supervisors for hikes and excursions. A jubilee will be held June 20, as an introduction to the playgrounds.

The dance June 6 was a huge success due mostly to the efforts of the teenagers who did most of the work under the expert supervision of Mrs. Berry and Miss Parrish. We give our vote of thanks to them.

1947 PACKARD CLIPPER TO BE GIVEN AWAY

AVC's second annual carnival will be the luckiest day of his life for some ticket holder, for being given away at the carnival and dance will be a 1947 Packard Clipper and many other prizes.

The new Packard will be in evidence in Vanport during the week of June 16-21. If you have a ticket, you need not be present to win.

DEMOS WIN AGAIN

The Vanport Democrats stretched their winning streak to four in a row Friday, June 6, by defeating the Vanport Fire Department, 13 to 2. Chili Childers hit a home-run with the bases loaded, then tripled with a Democrat on every platform to drive in 8 runs, then doubled his next time at bat.

A five inning scrimmage (not counting in League standings) was played as an afterthought and was won by the Fire Department, 4 to 3.

MARSHALL PLAYGROUND OPENED

The playground at Marshall Field opened June 16. Registration for the classes and activities began at 10:00 a.m.

This year's program includes a variety of crafts for all ages under the direction of Billy Varner; hiking, fishing, insect collection and mounting under the direction of Mr. "Spence" Spencer; games, bicycling and tournaments under Mr. F. D. Gary; organized games and woodcraft under Joe Parker, who will also instruct tennis.

DO YOU HAVE TALENT?

Mrs. Mildred Miller has been added to the staff of Rec. 1, and now has the job of talent shows that will be coming up soon. She hopes to have the first one ready by the 4th of July.

If you are interested in participating, no matter what your age, and can play any type of instrument, sing, dance, act, or do tricks of magic, contact Mrs. Miller from 7-10 on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings.

Will we see you there?

MAGIC SHOW

Professor Turtle, the celebrated magician, came to Vanport on June 18 for a varied show of amazing tricks in Community Building #1.

For just 20¢, children saw the exciting program presented by the gifted showman. The program was sponsored by the Home Beautification Contest Committee.

BROWNIES PICNIC IN PARK

Thirty Brownies from the Marshall School troops had a picnic at Washington Park June 11.

The little girls were accompanied by Mrs. Lucille Ulmen, Mrs. Mary Stumpf, Mrs. Gertha Richards, Mrs. P. Sloan, and Mrs. Ralph Ensign. They had a busy day seeing the animals, playing games and having their picnic.

The Brownies will continue to meet all this summer.

JUBILEE DAY

Jubilee Day will be held at the Marshall Playground Friday, June 20, from 1:00 to 9:30 p.m.

There will be a jive band, Journal helicopter, motorcycle exhibit, boxing show, baton twirlers, and an exhibit of crafts and sports. A free movie will feature Abbot and Costello in "Hit the Ice."

The Tenant's League, A.V.C., the church groups, the homemakers' group, sheriff's department, fire department, Rod and Gun Club, and the North Side Community League sponsored this day through their over-all committee on community problems.

These groups realized many people were not participating in available recreational, educational and religious facilities because they did not know about them.

DEMOS AGAIN VICTORIOUS

On June 10, the 'red hot' Vanport team, the Democrats, won their fifth game in six starts behind the four-hit pitching of Chili Childers when they defeated Grasse Electric of the Industrial D League 9-7.

DANCE FEATURES GLAMOUR

A dance featuring Bill Turner's orchestra was held Saturday, June 7, in the Community Center gym.

The dance was sponsored by the adult craft class and building council, the funds to be put into the building fund.

The honored guest, Princess Joyce, of Jane Addams High School, was presented a bouquet of roses by the building council president, Audrey Publicover.

With a background of pastel colored streamers, individual tables, and flowers galore, everyone enjoyed dancing to slow, dreamy waltzes.

Photographers for the evening were Duane Siegrist and Generable Booker. Flower girl Audrey Publicover sold gardenia corsages, while Jimmy Beck served as head waiter.
