OFFICIAL PUBLICATION OF THE LEWIS AND CLARK
CENTENNIAL EXPOSITION

1905

Col. Dasch,

Portland, Oregon

Portland, Oregon.

Dear Sir:-

Accompanying this note you will find a trifling article which I thought will leave for you as a suvenoir of my visit to Portland. By wearing the neckwaer you will show yourself to be a friend of Japan.

With a great appreciation for all what you have done for Japan and what you are intending to do for my countrymen, and with assurance of my high esteem,

I remain, as ever,

Respectfully yours,

Baron M. Matsudaira

Baron M. Matsudaira, M.H.P.
Vice President, care Dept. Agriculture and Commerce,
Tokyo, Japan.

My dear Sir,-

Kindly accept my sincere thanks for your favor of recent date, together with its inclosure, which I shall take great pleasure in wearing in honor of the great State of Japan. As you know, I have always been a friend of that far Eastern country and the more I see of you and yours, a warmer friend I am.

Hoping to have the pleasure of seeing you again, perhaps at our own Exposition here next year, I add my kindest regards, and remain,

Cordially yours,
