PURPOSES OF ROSE FESTIVAL

The Portland Rose Festival is a civic activity, sponsored by the people of the City of Portland annually as a community celebration in honor of the advent of the annual crop of roses which grow in profusion throughout the city and surrounding territory. The Rose Festival is intended to show to the world the spirit of hospitality and civic enterprise that has caused and is causing Portland to forge ahead as a thriving, enterprising city with cooperation and congeniality as watchwords. The City of Portland is glad of an opportunity to invite the world to spend a week each year in the full enjoyment of the scenic beauties and the other attractions that make Portland an outstanding city on the Pacific Coast.

INTRODUCTION

The Spirit of the Red Rose:

The hour has come!
Rosaria, will unfold the Story of the Rose,
The chosen flower of Man,
Whose petals mark moments of beauty in his slow ascent.

First comes the Aryan Rose of Light;
Unfolding to the Persian Rose of Beauty;
Blooming in ancient Greece, the Lyric Rose of Love;
Rooted forever in the Christian faith, the legendary Rose of Jericho.

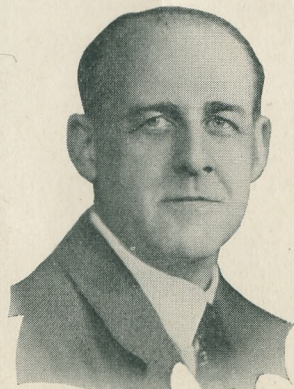

Torn by war between the Red Rose and the White,
But wedded to bloom, the English Rose of Peace;
Struggling toward freedom in the Pilgrim Rose of Hope;
Climbing to liberty, our own Colonial Rose, the Mary Washington;
And then, the little Mission Rose,
Finding at last a home in Oregon.

Episode I.

ARYAN

Scene Himalaya Mountains
Time The Dim Past

"Like the proud virgins of the years
As if the spring were all your own
What are ye when
The Rose is blowne."

—Sir Henry Walton.

The Spirit of the Red Rose:

In the beginning of the Aryan race,
Men did not know the sun would rise each day.
The Sun meant heat, and food, and light,
The Sun became their God,
To stay his anger and to gain his favor
They offered him a human sacrifice.

Behold the virgin Aryan Rose!
Ready to give her beauty and her life,
To serve her people's need,
But ere the sacrificial daggers pierced her heart,
The Sun burst forth, and brought the light.
Behold the Story of the Aryan Rose!

ARYAN PROCESSIONAL Cadman

BARITONE SOLO AND CHORUS—"Aryan Rose".....Smith-Cadman

"THE SACRIFICE OF THE ARYAN ROSE"

High Priest and Priests:

Oh Sun, Oh Mighty God of Heat and Light,
We fear to live in endless night!
We sacrifice! We sacrifice! We sacrifice!
Our Aryan Rose!
Oh take her bleeding heart,
Her Spirit chaste as gold
And let them feed thy passion's might;
And give, Great Sun, oh, give us Light!
Oh, Sun, oh flaming sun with passion burning
Tear the robes from the limbs of Night
And give us Dawn, THE ROSE OF LIGHT!

Chorus—

The Sacrifice! The Sacrifice! The Sacrifice!
Behold the Aryan Rose!
High on the hill she stands.
Great Sun, accept her from our hands—
To feed thy passion and thy might,
That thou, Oh Sun, mayst pierce the womb of Night
And give us Dawn, THE ROSE OF LIGHT!

Oh mighty God of heat and light,
We fear to live in endless night.
We sacrifice, we sacrifice, we sacrifice,
Our virgin Aryan Rose.
Oh take her bleeding heart,
Her spirit chaste as gold,
And give great Sun, oh, give us light.

Episode II.

THE ATTAR OF THE ROSE

Scene Northern Persia

Time Ancient

"Look to the blowing rose about us 'Lo,
Laughing', she says, 'into the world I blow,
At once the silken tassel of my purse
Tear, and its treasure on the garden throw.'"

—Omar Khayyam.

The Spirit of the White Rose:

Behold the Persian Rose of Beauty!
Enjoy the perfume of this lovely rose!
The petals of Damascus and the Alba white
Were garnered first in Persia,
And crushed into the Attar of the Rose.

Behold the beauty of the Persian Rose!
Who, blossoming centuries ago,
Won favor with a mighty Persian prince.
Like Prince and maid in deep embrace,
The precious petals held the sensuous love of man.
Now catch the fragrance of the Attar of the Rose.

THE LYRIC ROSE OF LOVE

Scene Ancient Greece
 Time 600 B. C.

"Would Jove appoint some flower to reign
 In matchless beauty on the plain;
 The rose, mankind will all agree,
 The rose, the queen of flowers should be."
 —Sappho.

The Spirit of the Red Rose:

Behold this ancient legend of the rose!
 Whose petals in one night
 Were turned from white to red.

Within a white rose glade upon Olympus,
 The shepherd lad, Adonis, lay dying of his wounds.
 Then Venus left her place among the gods,
 And ran to aid this mortal whom she loved.
 So great her haste, that rose thorns tore her flesh.
 It was her blood that turned white roses red.
 Behold this ancient legend of the rose,
 The birth of the red rose of love.

PROCESSIONAL AND CHORUS—"Spring Hymn to Aphrodite".....
..... Eberhardt-Cadman

Wreathe ye the garlands, fragrant with spice,
Lead ye the dolphin, lead the swan;
Dance through the valleys, dance on the shore,
Dance on the hills at rosy dawn.
Twine ye the myrtle, twine ye the rose,
Call ye the sparrow, call the dove;
Blossoms of apple, blossoms of lime,
Shower the spring with leaves of love.

LYRIC SOPRANO SOLO—"The Lyric Rose of Love".....Smith-Cadman

Oh mortal fair, that wounded there
Lies dying in the glade.
My heart is sad, for thee sweet lad,
I cannot let thee fade!
Bear him above, with hands of love—
His spirit bright to save.

Chorus—

Roses white to red are turning
And my heart with love is burning,
Adonis sweet, Adonis fair,
Adonis, Venus' dove,
The roses white, shall from this night
Be red—rose red as love!

Episode IV.

THE ROSE OF JERICHO

"The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad
And the desert shall rejoice and blossom as the rose.
It shall blossom abundantly and rejoice even with joy and singing."
—Psalms.

The Spirit of the White Rose:

The hour has come,
The greatest hour in all the story of the rose.
Behold the Rose of Jericho!
The Christian Rose of Faith.

Behold the friendly Egypt-land.
Behold the kindly infidel.
Behold the Host of Innocents, the Spirits of the children Herod slew.
Behold the Holy Family.
The sacred tie of Man and Woman and the Child.

The legend tells that Mary, travel worn,
Rested beneath a withered rose tree in the desert.
Behold the blossoming of the Mystic Rose!
The sad, sweet Rose of Jericho.

THE DESERT'S DUSTY FACE.....Cadman
 THE ROSE OF JERICHO*Smith-Cadman*

We are the Hosts of Innocents, that clear the way for Christ today,
 Bloom out, bloom out, sweet Rose of Jericho,
 A sign for all the world to know
 We are the first born Herod slew,
 Our lives we gave that He might live,
 Oh purple Rose of Jericho, lift up your withered head so fair,
 Beneath you rests God's only heir.

"A BABE IS HERE OF MARY BORN".....Eberhardt-Cadman

A babe is here of Mary born,
 A King to be whom tyrants seek;
 Within his Mother's arms forlorn,
 He sleeps upon his baby cheek.

O Holy Child, arise and go,
 No human hand may quench Thy star;
 The Love that led Thee from Thy home
 Will bring Thee back from lands afar.

'Cross the miles of desert sand
 Behind you is the tyrant's hand
 Around you is the jackal's cry.

Oh Holy Child, about Thy head,
 Angelic choirs are singing sweet,
 Angelic wings are hiding Thee,
 The way is safe before Thy feet.

THE WAR OF THE ROSES

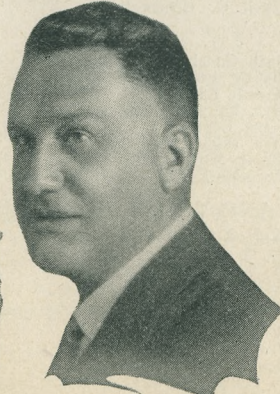

Scene England
 Time 1455-85

"I sometimes think that never blows so red
 The Rose as where some buried Caesar bled."

—Omar Khayyam.

Minna Pelz

J. McMillan Muir

Nell Brown

The Spirit of the Red Rose:

Behold the English Rose of Peace!
Altho its roots were drenched in blood,
It flowered at last the Rose of Love.

Great feudal lords held sway on land and sea.
Old Albion was torn by civil war.
Should Lancaster or York ascend their country's throne?
Within the Temple Gardens, five great lords, dispute the cause.
York cries, "Let him that is a true born gentleman,
And stands upon the honor of his birth,
From off this brier pluck, a white rose with me."
Lancaster answers, "Let him that is no coward,
But dare maintain the party of the truth,
Pluck a red rose from off this thorn with me."

So the Red Rose and the White
Became the symbol of the warring armies.
The War of Roses shook the land,
With clash of weapons, and with the noise of battle,
Till lord and thrall yearned for Peace.

At last love triumphed
In the wedding of the White Rose and the Red;
Elizabeth of York and Henry, Duke of Lancaster.
Behold the flowering of the English Rose of Peace!

WORLD'S PRAYER FOR PEACE	Classen-Cadman

War's hateful cry, and lust for worldly gain,
 Has caused us endless grief and bitter pain;
 Progress has taught the evil of our way,
 And Peace is dawning with a newer day.

Forces of might, not right, have often ruled,
 And all the world in bloodshed has been schooled;
 Please God, no more vast grave-yards where we kneel,
 But join our hearts and hands for common weal.

Chorus—

We pray for Peace on Earth, Good Will toward all;
 May Love, instead of Hate, our hearts enthrall.
 We pray that every nation sees the right;
 That Truth and Justice rule in place of Might;
 That men-at-arms forever cease their reign,
 And wasting war may ne'er return again.
 From chaos and confusion, these shall rise enduring,
 Peace and everlasting ties.

Episode VI.

THE ROSE OF PLYMOUTH AND THE COLONIAL ROSE

Scene I	Puritan
Time	1620

"Strew on her roses, roses,
 And never a spray of yew!
 In quiet she reposes;
 Ah, would that I did too!"

—Arnold.

Scene II	Colonial
Time	1776

"The budding rose above the Rose Full Blown."

—Wadsworth.

The Spirit of the White Rose:

Behold the Pilgrim Rose of Hope!
 Rose Standish, Rose of Plymouth Town.
 First to die, of all who came in the Mayflower.

Now you shall feel the dashing of Atlantic waves,
 And see the lurking Redmen on the shore.
 Now you shall hear the hymn of faith,
 And see the lasting beauty of the Pilgrim Rose of Hope.

Behold the Colonial Rose of Liberty!
 The first American Rose, the Mary Washington,
 Planted by her son upon Mt. Vernon's soil.

Come now, enjoy the stately minuet
 And gracious colonial hospitality,
 Through which grew the Spirit of 1776
 And bloomed through struggle, the Rose of Liberty.

THE OREGON MISSION ROSE AND CORONATION

Scene I Oregon
 Time 1876

"A lovely being, scarcely formed or moulded
 A rose with all its sweetest leaves yet folded."

—Byron.

Scene II Portland, Oregon
 Time 1927

"Alas that spring should vanish with the Rose!
 That youth's sweet-scented manuscript should close!
 The nightingale that in the branches sang,
 Ah whence, and whither flown again, who knows!"

—Omar Khayyam.

The Spirit of the White Rose:

Behold the Mission Rose of Oregon!
 Brought from the south over the trail worn by the bare feet of the padres,
 The Rose planted by Margaret McLaughlin.

Behold the wind-blown western forest,
 Where lived the Chinook, the Clatsop, the Multnomah.
 Hear the tramp of the men of the Oregon Trail,
 Adventuring first through the northwest mountains,
 Look now upon the covered wagon train,
 And feel the strength and power and courage
 Of those who built the first homes of Oregon.
 And here again we plant the rose,
 The Mission Rose of Oregon.

Behold our Queen, the Court of Rosaria,
 Where blooms the Portland Rose.
 Within our city gates for this one week
 Pay homage to the Rose.
 All nations bring their roses to our Queen.
 Let roses reign supreme.

"WESTERN TREE BALLET".....Perkins

"OREGON TRAIL MEN CHORUS".....Perkins

A band of hardy Pioneers,
A rugged band and strong;
We have broken a long trail to Oregon,
A land where strong men belong.
Into the forests that bar our way
We blaze the path along
And the firs tall and sombre
Bow down to the axe
While our voices we uplift in song.

PIONEER CHORUSPerkins

Brave men and true to God are we,
Brave men and true to home we'll be
By strength of hope eternal
We'll make our home
Here in this land of peace and beauty
Here with the aid of love and duty
Give thanks to the Almighty for Oregon.

PIONEER WOMEN'S SONG.....Perkins

(Soprano Solo and Male Chorus)

Halting here our long weary journey ends,
Humbly here our crude new life begins;
We plant this rose, the symbol of home and state
That from a wilderness our pioneers create.
Thru ages past, the lovely rose, in legend, verse and song,
Has followed man to mark his path, the weary way along.
In years to be o'er all these hills each breeze that gently blows;
Will tell anew of conquest and the glory of the rose.

A wilted little rose, brought with care far o'er the plain,
And set with tender hands, to take root and grow again,
To bloom on ev'ry hill-side, and link with flowery chain,
Ensnare our hearts forever, to hold them in this bright domain.

ROSE FOR EVERY HEART.....Cadman

Roses bloom upon a thousand hills,
Fair as dawn and red as morning ray,
Sweet with incense they dance upon the spray,
Roses cover all the world today;
Roses bright as golden summer noon,
Dark as sunset or pale as winter moon,
Love and roses fill the heart of June,
The world is like a rose today.

The Fairy Rose

Wednesday, June 15, 2:00 P. M., at Laurelhurst Park

Junior Pageant of the Portland Rose Festival, 1927

One thousand children participating in a legendary story of the rose, depicted in four episodes.

Supervision of DOROTHY MCKEE FUDGE

C. P. Keyser, Director

W. H. Barton, Director

Fairy Rose blooms in the garden at early dawn. Apollo arrives and falls in love with her. He becomes angry, causing her petal hearts to droop to the ground and the breeze wafts them to the sea where they are changed into sea shells. Years pass. King Neptune creates a green isle from which emerges Venus who sends her two attendants to gather the petal hearts of Fairy Rose in a rose sceptre.

Special Events of Rose Festival Week

POLICE REVIEW—

The Portland Bureau of Police will formally inaugurate the 1927 Rose Festival Monday at 10 A. M. with a review at Multnomah stadium followed by a parade through the downtown streets. This will be participated in by all members of the department.

NEGRO JUBILEE SINGERS—

The noted Mt. Olivet Jubilee chorus will give a special program of negro spirituals and plantation melodies 7:45 P. M. to 8:30 P. M. Tuesday at Multnomah Civic Stadium. This organization, conducted by Miss Shirley McCann, has created a sensation in the musical world with several remarkable programs. The program at the stadium will be featured by the chorus and by a male quartet and a mixed quartet.

CHINESE DRAGON—

The Chinese of Portland have spent nearly $10,000 in the purchase and importation from China of an elaborate silk and tapestry dragon. This will be seen first in the Merrykhana Parade Friday at 2:30 at the civic stadium. The dragon has been imported specially for the 1927 Rose Festival.

CHINESE CARNIVAL—

Chinatown will be thrown open Thursday and Friday of Rose Festival week for the first time in many years. The Chinese of Portland have invested many thousands of dollars in the purchase of equipment, firecrackers and Chinese costumes for use in the carnivals to be staged Thursday night in new Chinatown on Fourth street, and Friday night in old Chinatown on Second street. These districts have not been opened to the public for many years and are being opened this year as a special donation of the Chinese to the Rose Festival spirit.

AIR CIRCUS—

Army and civilian aviators will present a series of air thrills at the beginning of the floral parade Thursday and the Merrykhana Parade Friday. They will fly over Multnomah Civic Stadium. This event is under direction of Lieutenant Oakley Kelly of Vancouver Barracks.

FESTIVAL CENTER—

The Festival Center located on the park blocks between Park, West Park, Jefferson and Salmon streets is one of the most colorful attractions of the Rose Festival. This center will be open throughout the week. As a special feature the Victor Talking Machine Company, through the courtesy of The Morning Oregonian, has brought to Portland the giant orthophonic Victrola. This will play concerts at Festival Center each afternoon and evening. C. P. Keyser is Rose Festival director in charge of the Festival Center. The decorations were designed by Florence Holmes Gerke and executed by A. W. Nussbaumer. The illumination was installed by the Jagger-Sroufe Co. The florists of Portland are participating in the floral decorations.

MODEL BOAT REGATTA—

School boys of Portland and vicinity under the auspices of The Oregon Journal Juniors and the manual training department of the public schools are presenting this year for the first time a model boat contest and regatta. The boats built will be exhibited Tuesday, June 14, at 12 o'clock noon at Laurelhurst Park, followed at 2 o'clock with sailing contests on Laurelhurst Park Lake.

FIRE BUREAU EXHIBITION—

The Portland Bureau of Fire will stage a thrilling exhibition at Multnomah Stadium Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, showing the methods used in modern fire fighting and life saving. The exhibition will include work with fire apparatus, high jumps, wall scaling, fire fighting and other thrilling activities that are a part of the work of this department.

FIRE BOAT EXHIBITIONS—

Portland has two large fire boats. These will be seen in full action Monday at 3:30 P. M. and Wednesday at 10 A. M. and will give an exhibition Saturday night at 9:30 under illumination from ships and docks.

THE GIANT VICTROLA—

Daily concerts will be given in Festival Center by the giant orthophonic Victrola. This instrument, built by the Victor Co. and shipped across the continent especially for the Rose Festival, weighs two and a half tons and may be heard for three miles. This event is sponsored by The Morning Oregonian.

ROYAL ROSARIANS—

The Rose Festival is sponsored by the Royal Rosarians. This organization takes into its membership distinguished visitors who attend Rose Festival. The ceremonial this year will be held at the Garden Theater at Washington Park, Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. This event is public.

MILITARY PARADE—

The Oregon National Guard with 1500 troops will parade Monday evening at 7 o'clock, arriving at the Stadium at 7:45 to formally open the Pageant Rosaria with a thrilling military exhibition.

QUEEN'S CORONATION—

Queen Dorothy of the Rose Festival will be crowned with due pomp and ceremony by the Royal Rosarians at Laurelhurst Park Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Her reign over the realm of Rosaria extends throughout Rose Festival week.

BATTLESHIP OREGON—

Visit the Historic Battleship Oregon, docked at east end of Broadway Bridge. Open 9 A. M. to 9 P. M. daily.

PARADE SEATS

The Floral and the Merrykhana Parades will pass through Multnomah Civic Stadium at 2:30. 20,000 unreserved seats 25 cents. Reserved seats 75 cents. Seats on sale until noon of parade day at Sherman Clay's Music store, Sixth and Morrison streets, and on sale at Stadium after noon.
